LINEMEN RETURN TO WORK TODAY

Differences to be Referred to Arbitration Committee.

ITS DECISION IS FINAL

CONFERENCE HELD YESTERDAY WITH TELEPHONE OFFICIALS.

The troubles existing between the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company and Local No. 57, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, are to be referred to an arbitration committee of five. The decision of that body is to be binding upon both parties. Pending the investigation to be made by the arbitrators, it was stated yesterday by C. D. Bowman, chairman of the press committee that the linemen, who have been on a strike since June 13, are to return to work.

The grievance committee of the local branch of the international organization, held a conference yesterday morning with Superintendent D. S. Murray of the company. The meeting took place at 10:30 o'clock in the office of the latter. The differences between the two parties were discussed at length. Both sides agreed to make concessions, looking to a settlement of the strike, with the result that the whole matter is to be referred to an arbitration committee.

Return to Work Today.

It was later announced that Harry Sommer, late of Helena, Mont., who has recently been promoted to the position of superintendent of construction and Frank U. Bliss, 317 East First South street, city manager, had been selected to represent the company on the board. At the meeting, the local union yesterday afternoon, in its rooms above the Utah National bank in the Jennings block, Charles J. Reed, 33 Center street, and Joseph S. Orr, 181 East First South street, were selected to represent the strikers.

BURGLARS GET CIGARS.

Fancy Stock Valued at $150 Stolen Yesterday Morning.

The cigar store of Julius Frumkin, 28 East First South street, was broken into at an early hour yesterday morning by several men who secured high-grade cigars to the value of $150. On suspicion of being implicated in the burglary, G. J. Richards, a salesman, 28 years of age, was taken into custody yesterday afternoon by Officer Simpson and Detective Raleigh.

FORT DOUGLAS TONSORIAL PARLOR IS AN ORIENTAL ARSENAL

If the average Salt Laker, upon stepping into a barber shop to get his usual morning shave, should find the walls and tables of the tonsorial parlor decorated with every variety of a razor-edged knife, from a Moro kris, shaped like a cake knife, to dangerous looking little Japanese "suicide" daggers, it is safe to say that he would not respond to the artist's "Next!" with alacrity.

He would be apt to suggest that a razor might scrape his face just as effectively as one of the harder looking stools.

Out at Fort Douglas, however, adjoining the band headquarters, where Drum Major G. E. Cleveland holds forth, is a barber shop that is adorned, not for shaving purposes, but for decoration only, with several dozen kinds of Japanese, Philippine and Moro weapons. When the "next" comes down in the easy chair to be shaved he is literally surrounded by the shining array.

Nor do they all shine. Some have seen service, and these have a sort of rusty, blood-rusty appearance. The collection is largely owned by Drum Major Cleveland of the Twenty-ninth infantry. He has also a suit of armor such as was used by the Japs in the fourteenth century. It is a perfect specimen and is one of three now in this country.

VARIOUS MEMBERS OF THE TOUT FAMILY ARE MARVELS OF ENGLISH MUSICAL CIRCLES

London, England, June 7.

It will, perhaps, come as an agreeable surprise to the readers of The Herald that one more of the distinguished Tout family is just at present rising to repute. The name, Tout, in French, means "all," so the unusual musical success of this family may, in a sense, seem to be fore-ordained. Since returning from Utah last summer Mr. Tout has, at home, been giving diligent study to the cultivation of his voice, and now, in a very fortunate manner, it has met with attention. Having been called to the Royal college on some business concerning Nannie, he was casually asked by one of the masters to sing for them. After complying with an aria from "Lohengrin," Mr. Tout's execution and quality of his tenor voice were most favorably commented upon by the several professors. Immediately he was tendered an offer of two free lessons weekly, under the masters of the college. Having accepted, as a result, is now occupying the position of soloist in the oratorio. Mr. Tout, himself, is most enthusiastic over the prospects and the improvement of his voice, lately, especially in the quality of his power of its upper register, may be taken as a criterion, observing friends may share his buoyancy.

It is positively announced that Miss Nannie Tout, in company with her father, will leave for Utah on July 7, to be gone till Oct. 1. It has been hoped that Signor Visetti, "Nannie's" master at the Royal College of Music, would accompany her on this excursion to Utah, but having just returned from America and being pressed with the business of the college, he will be unable to assist Miss Tout till the summer of 1905. It is expected that Signor Visetti will be made, Mr. Visetti says, that, as a result of his Canadian lectures, the papers there are offering him many inducements to visit them with "Nannie."

Miss Tout's reputation as a popular singer continues to grow, as this month she appears twice at concerts of no little notability. The first appearance is at the "Great Adull" concert at Crystal Palace, Saturday, June 18. With full orchestral accompaniment, Miss Tout will be the soloist to Mendelssohn, "As the Heart Pangs."

Soon after, or before the above, she will sing before the king, queen and the members of the court, at the annual levee held at Buckingham Palace. This latter honor comes as a significant sequel to Miss Tout's recent appearance before the queen.

Miss Maggie Tout, just past 14, besides playing well on the violinello, has a clear soprano voice, also being trained by gratuitous lessons at the Royal college. Her prospects are as bright as those of her sister, Nannie, and among their many friends there is often little preference expressed concerning the sweetness of their singing.

Miss Grace Tout, 17, who also is given instruction gratis at the college, besides having the reputation of being the additional advantage of a charming personality, which, in the minds of her masters, presages a future surprise.

Heber S. Goddard is also very busily engaged, having spent the past week at the popular seaside resort, Ramsgate, singing under the management of Hugo Gottsch, perhaps somewhat known in Utah. Mr. Goddard has accepted a few special pupils, but has not yet opened his studio in West London.

What with the royal operas at Covent Garden and the national English operas at Drury Lane theatre, London, but having just returned from America and being pressed with the business of the college, he will be unable to assist Miss Tout till the summer of 1905. It is expected that Signor Visetti will be made, Mr. Visetti says, that, as a result of his Canadian lectures, the papers there are offering him many inducements to visit them with "Nannie."

CHARLES BOTHA MAKING BREAD

Warden Pratt Has Placed Him in the Bakery.

HE IS A MODEL PRISONER

WOMEN ASSURE SHOCKLEY OF A LIFE SENTENCE.

Charles ("Dutch") Botha is learning the baker's trade at the Utah penitentiary. He is the man who was to have been executed Friday, June 10, for the shooting and killing of his wife and William Tibbitts in San Juan county more than two years ago. The state board of pardons held a special session Saturday, June 11, and upon the presentation of Botha's case, the board voted to place him in the bakery. Botha has been in the prison, more than two years, and Warden Pratt was unable to put him to work for several days, his physical condition being such that he was not fit to perform manual labor.

Satisfied With His Lot.

A few days of exercise in the prison yard improved Botha's condition so much that Warden Pratt felt justified in placing him in the bakery. Should Botha learn how to give satisfaction, he will have a chance to earn his keep, and that is a comfortable living.

Botha is well disposed towards his work and takes a keen interest in it. His sole aim now is to give satisfaction to the warden, give the guards no trouble and make a good living. At the same time Botha will have the baker's trade to fall back upon should mining not prove profitable.

Promises Made to Shockley.

James McPherson Shockley, who was to have been executed June 24 for the double murder of his wife and daughter, still occupies a death cell at the prison. He was not in the least moved by the news carried to him by Warden Pratt that a stay of execution had been secured by his attorney, Smith & Gibson, and that he might be able to secure a life sentence for him.

OFFICER AFTER CHINESE.

Inspector Finds Three Without Proper Identification Papers.

Chinese Inspector T. J. Longley and Deputy United States Marshal H. S. Page have been creating distress in Utah cities since they landed. Their latest victim is Yee Hong, waiter in a Commercial street resort and an alleged highlander. Mr. Hong asserts his papers are in the hands of a dear friend in San Francisco, and he has a chance to prove this before Utah State Commissioner Twomey in a few days.

Yee Wah Toy was able to convince the local officials that his papers had been produced to witnesses to swear that while Yee was working at camp twenty-nine on the Lach cut of his coat, containing his papers, was blown from a nail into the lake and swept away. Yee was let go, but unless the officials at San Francisco decide his case warrants the issuance of new papers he will later be taken to the lower empire.

Chin Toy, alias Chin Hop, alias Cray Hop, is in the county jail and will soon be moved toward the Golden Gate, preliminary to an Oriental tour. Chin asserts he burned his papers by mistake. He has a chance for appeal, but it will be Chin to China shortly.

Widows loan money to friends and sometimes lose nearly every dollar they have in the world.

Grocers and butchers, doctors and bankers, the people in every street and all of the smaller stores lose hundreds and sometimes thousands of dollars every year in trusting those they believe honest. Hundreds leave their bills unpaid and the merchants, bankers, widows, landlords, doctors and all classes turn them to us for collection.

The bills are all honestly due and owing. Some of these bills are hard to collect. Some people intentionally avoid paying. We employ a great many people to assist us, but we need more help. We need the help of every man and woman and every bright boy in the state of Utah to assist us in the collection of these claims. Almost every person knows of some other person against whom we have bills for collection, and know where they are located and what doing. We will pay you for the information that will help us collect from them.

In every instance some one needs the money and it is honestly due and owing. We want the people in every city, town, and every block of every city to read this advertisement and assist us in collecting these honest debts. Sometimes the people will pay readily if the matter is brought to their attention at the right time. A pointer to us will enable us to find the debtor and collect the debt immediately. We will pay you for the information that will help us collect from them.

If you do not think of anything today tell us when you do think of it. We will acknowledge receipt for all information and pay liberally for the same as fast as results are obtained. Call upon or write to us. This proposition is good today, tomorrow and at all times. Here is a chance to make some money easy and help some one who needs the money.

The collection business is no side issue with us. We have been in it eleven years. We collect bad debts all over the world. Our offices extend from Utah to Honolulu. We have twenty-eight associate offices. Wherever we can collect bad and slow accounts. Our facilities are the best and associated with us are some of the best legal talent in this entire western country. We are equipped to collect any kind of a debt.

We are spending four thousand dollars this year in advertising our business and the commissions we earn on collections we make pay for it all and leaves us a handsome profit. Our success in the past has been due to hard, conscientious work on our part and earnest appreciation on the part of our patrons.

Does any one owe you? Do you want the money?
